THE above reports of The Salt Lake Tribune are published in conformity with the act of congress of August 24, 1912. The constitutionality of this act was attacked by papers, acting for the American Newspaper Publishers' association, of which practically every journal of importance in the United States is a member. Two weeks ago the supreme court of the United States held the law to be constitutional. Pending this decision, The Tribune declined to accede to this law, believing that the law was an unwarranted invasion of the rights of every newspaper in the country.

Necessary information concerning The Tribune has always been at the disposal of those doing business with the paper. Its circulation records have been open to those entitled to information—a list that includes its tremendous array of advertisers. Its rates have been uniform and honestly maintained always.

It will be observed that, in the report of paid subscribers, the number is given of those only who receive The Tribune direct from The Tribune's organization and without any intermediate handling. Rulings of the postoffice department and of the attorney general necessitate this segregation. Altogether approximately 400 newsdealers handle The Tribune, some of them taking several hundred copies daily. These are excluded, also papers sold on the street, which run from 800 on week days to an average of 6500 Sundays in Salt Lake City alone. Likewise, papers sold on news stands, at hotels and on railway trains.

At noon yesterday (Saturday) the orders in hand for Sunday's Tribune made necessary a total press run of 32,315, divided as follows: City and suburbs, 18,813; outside, 13,502.

During the month of June The Tribune's total circulation was:

Average daily circulation (including Sunday) 18,911

Average daily circulation (excluding Sunday) 16,425

Average Sunday circulation 31,345

State of Utah, County of Salt Lake.

A. N. McKay, being duly sworn, says that he is the general manager of The Salt Lake Tribune Publishing company, the publishers of The Salt Lake Tribune. Affiant further says that the foregoing statement as to the circulation of The Salt Lake Tribune, daily and Sunday, during the month of June, 1913, and for July 6, 1913, is true.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 5th day of July, 1913.

(Seal.) J. C. FITZPATRICK, Notary Public in and for Salt Lake county, Utah.

My commission expires February 20, 1915.

(The accompanying statements were printed in yesterday's Tribune, but owing to a typographical error in the correction of a line, both statements were given as covering the same period. They are reprinted so that there can be no misunderstanding.)

COOLER WEATHER IS FORECAST FOR WEEK

Moderate Disturbance Off North Pacific Coast Only Indication of Storm at Present.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Relief from the heat wave was promised today in the weather bureau weekly bulletin, which says:

"Present pressure distribution over the northern hemisphere indicates that unseasonable high temperatures need not be expected during the coming week, and the west it will be warmer Monday and Tuesday, though not decidedly so, and moderate weather may be expected after the middle of the week. High pressure, with generally fair weather, will prevail during the week, the greater portion of the country, over the Pacific coast, but its extreme North Pacific portion will probably not be eastward by more than local showers over the northwest during the early portion of the week and possibly over the Missouri and upper Mississippi valleys about the middle of the week."

STEAMS HIS FEET AND REGAINS HIS HEALTH

By International News Service. TRENTON, N. J., July 6.—Thomas Doyle, a 20-year-old prisoner at the state prison, has discovered something which has attracted the attention of medical men. Doyle came into the prison several years ago with a delicate constitution. He commenced to steam his feet every night with mustard and hot water, followed by a brisk massage. His health is now about that of the other inmates of the institution and his belief is that the strange pelvic treatment is what built up his system. His theory is that all of the impurities of the body are removed by this.

TAKES SAME VIEW AS JAMES J. HILL

Vice President Marshall Says Congress Should Be Abolished for Ten Years.

By International News Service.

PHILADELPHIA, July 6.—Vice President Marshall, in a remarkable interview here today, declared that in his belief the American business man is justified in maintaining special paid representatives at Washington for the purpose of watching legislation. He also asserted that the American business men should forget congress for the next ten years. He said that in this he had the same idea as James J. Hill, who said recently that the best thing for American business would be to abolish congress for ten years.

The lobby investigation is being conducted by a committee of the senate, of which the vice president is the presiding officer. But he said that "as American business is being run at present, the business man is bound to spend money and to have a representative near the capitol."

"I am not saying whether this money is spent honestly," said Vice President Marshall. But he stated that there is such a thing as legitimate expenditure of money for lobbying.

"When business is in a state of mind where it regards congress as the creature that opens and closes its doors every day," he continued, "you are going to have money spent around the capitol. The big business men are going to have their representatives in Washington."

"The great principle of the present lobby investigation of the senate committee is to clear the air and prove that it is not necessary to depend on congress for business prosperity."

"I am not commenting on any men involved in the probe. It would not be fitting," he continued, "to say that every dollar of money about the capitol by the men who stand for big business, is only the natural outgrowth of the business man's attitude."

"It is to be expected that business men will spend big sums when they think their interests are so closely wrapped up in legislation. These sums may be spent properly and they may not. The principle is that they are bound to be spent, and that is a part of a business system conducted under the present ideas of the American business man that they be spent."

"The American business man ought to forget the lawmakers. He does not need to depend on this law or that. It only hurts him as a successful producer. The lobby will end naturally when the business man stands on his own feet and is ready to give and take with the whole world."

"There is no need for alarm in regard to our business. Markets being opened in South and Central America will give us enough trade to keep every factory in this country running twenty-four hours a day, six days in the week."

"The lobby investigation and the new tariff are simply going to force the American business man to show what he can really do and to get rid of the idea that his business depends on congress."

"I do not think we shall ever have free trade. My idea is that we shall reach the level of the Walker tariff, in force before the civil war, in which the duties were on a basis of 20 per cent ad valorem. This much tariff is necessary for revenue."

Piano Credit Vouchers Up to $115 Good as Gold at CARSTENSEN & ANSON CO.

How It Is Done and What it Means

The Strohber Piano Co., one of America's greatest, most responsible piano manufacturers, join Carstensen & Anson Co. in this undertaking.

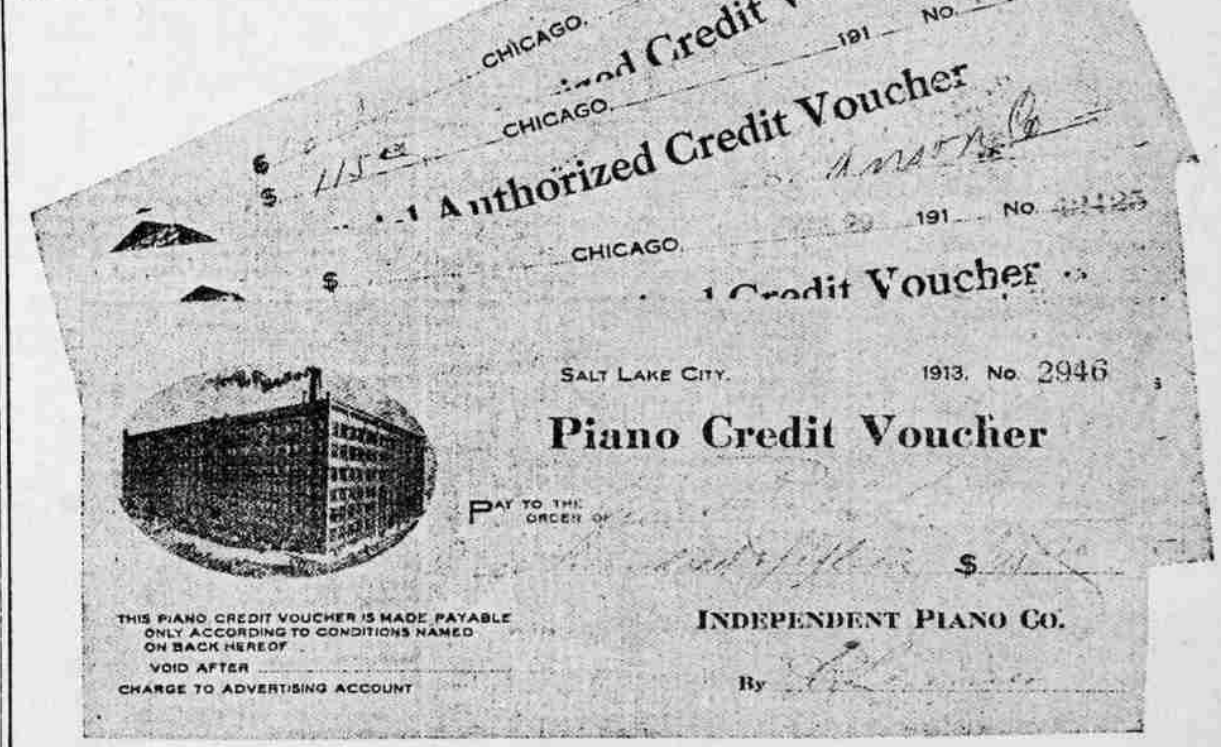

In the past we have conducted several publicity contests, where certificates have been issued. We have always redeemed them as so much actual cash, giving full value for them. We shall do so now.

Several of our friends who already owned pianos have left their vouchers with us to be used by those that have no vouchers. Each and every piano in our stock bears a card, upon which is marked in plain figures the regular established lowest retail price of the instrument. Select the piano you want, and if the price be, for example, $265.00, deduct the amount of your voucher, pay one-tenth of the balance in cash, and take twenty-four months—yes, thirty months if you wish to pay the balance, for the mere additional simple interest on the deferred payments.

Remember here you choose between instruments of known worth, of unquestioned durability, backed up by Utah's foremost, largest and most responsible piano house.

Take choice of the famous Weber, the artistic Everett, the favorite Krakauer, the celebrated Ludwig, the reliable Strohber, and many others.

Bear in mind, we guarantee every instrument as to quality, and also as to price, and nowhere else can be found under one roof so many high grade pianos to choose between and test side by side as at the house of the C. & A. Co. You will never be thoroughly satisfied with your purchase unless you have investigated our pianos, our prices and our terms.

SOME OF THE VOUCHERS REDEEMED SATURDAY

Another demonstration to show that it pays to buy at the big piano house. If you hold a purchase check for $115.00 don't throw it away. It represents genuine value if you bring it at once to Utah's Greatest Piano House and use it to secure a fine, new piano NOW.

Baby Grands, Player Pianos, regular pianos, included in this great offer. C. & A. Co.'s prices are always the lowest.

Investigate our reduced prices on the best that's to be had in the piano making world.
